Contrary to reports that the Falange Socialista Boliviana (FSB) would start a revolution 15-18 February, it is now believed that the FSB is not prepared to initiate a revolution by itself. However, Oscar UNZAGA de la Vega, FSB Supreme Leader, has ordered all FSB units to stand by for a possible Communist revolution which FSB leaders think is being planned by leftist members of the government. The FSB will align itself with the right wing of the Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario (MNR) in an attempt to put down this Communist movement or will act alone if the MNR refuses to join forces with the FSB in defeating the Communists.
